Speakers' Bureau Update

The Selective Service System's Speakers' Bureau was created by Director Donald Benton in early 2018. He had spoken to many of our board members and he knew they would be interested in participating in this initiative. When announcing the creation of the Speakers' Bureau, Director Benton noted "so many of our patriotic local board members want to do more to serve this agency and their country. We value their insight, efforts, and greatly appreciate their involvement and commitment to the agency's mission."

Heather Krause, of the Public and Intergovernmental Affairs Directorate, is our point-of-contact person for the Speakers' Bureau program

Local Board Member Anton Neff

Congratulations to Mr. Anton Karl Neff, who was recently appointed to the Selective Service System Local Board 041 for Owen County, Indiana. Local board members are volunteers nominated by a state governor or equivalent officials, and appointed by the Director of the Selective Service System on behalf of the U.S. President. They play an important community role closely connected with our nation's defense. If a military draft becomes necessary, approximately 2,000 local boards throughout the United States would decide which young men in each community receive deferments, postponements, or exemptions from military service based on federal guidelines.

For more information about Mr. Neff's appointment please see the article shown below (Reprinted with permission from Spencer Evening World.com) and to learn more about becoming a local board member please visit <https://www.sss.gov/Volunteers/Board-Member-Program>.

Anton Karl Neff was recently appointed to serve as Owen County's representative for this region's United States Selective Service System (SSS) Local Board.

Generically referred to as the "draft board," the SSS mission is "to register men and maintain a system that, when authorized by the President and Congress, rapidly provides personnel in a fair and equitable manner while managing an alternative service program for conscientious objectors."

Earlier this year, Neff was nominated by Indiana Governor Eric Holcomb to be considered as an SSS Local Board member. That nomination was accepted, and Neff recently completed his training.

The appointment was made in the name of the President, by Selective Service System Director Donald Benton. Neff's appointment and assignment to Area Office 009/Local Board 041 for the State of has five members, each representing their county of residence. If a military draft is activated, the board is tasked with evaluating and considering all judgmental claims, reviewing administrative denials, and affirming classifications or making reclassifications. Board members also serve as liaisons in their community to ensure that young adults are aware of the SSS registration requirement, as required by federal law.

"It is an honor to serve my country and follow in the service of Owen County's most recent representatives on this board, Lawrence Hunter and Alvin Schwartz," Neff commented. "Many thanks to Major Michael Hall of the US Army National Guard who reached out to me about this opportunity. We hope to never see the need to be activated but, if so, rest assured that I will perform the duties and responsibilities of this civilian volunteer position in a professional and impartial

Mike Corbin has Left the Building

After 13 years of SSS service, the time has finally come to hang up the tie! On Saturday, August 18th, Region II joined in with family and friends to celebrate the retirement of Michael "Mike" Corbin, Operations Manager. Mike joined the Selective Service System on February 22, 2005, as a Program Analyst, initially supporting readiness and training, and in 2009, he was promoted to Operations Manager. During his tenure he led the Regions' effort to review and update Region, State, and Area Office Readiness plans and developed milestones for completion, and coordinated the combined efforts of all three Regions. Ultimately taking the lead in this effort for all three Regions for the "Preparedness Project", Mike personally reviewed and rewrote major sections of the various Readiness plans and their annexes.

Mike's reputation as a subject matter expert and visionary leader was readily apparent to the National Headquarters leadership. During a period of key personnel shortages at the regional headquarters in Denver, he was detailed to serve in a dual role as Acting Region III Director and Operations Manager. While there, Mike quickly assumed responsibility, continued normal operations, and was instrumental in hiring the needed positions to bring the region up to strength. Mike also played a pivotal role in obtaining approval from the Secretary of the Air Force to move the Region II Headquarters from a commercial building in Smyrna to Dobbins Air Reserve Base.

In 2013, Mike was nominated for Outstanding Manager of the Year and placed fourth in this category in the greater Atlanta metro area. During the difficult period after the passing of the Region II Director in 2014, Mike again served as an Acting Region Director, displaying superb leadership in providing direction and continuity to the staff, State Directors (SD), and RFOs. Within the past year, the current Region Director was called to serve in Washington for four months as the Acting Associate Director for Operations. When requested by the National Director, Mike unselfishly set aside his planned retirement to again serve in dual roles as Acting Region Director and Operations Manager for Region II. Throughout, his performance during these periods has been exemplary.

Mike earned numerous awards during his tenure with the Agency, some of which are the SSS Meritorious and Distinguished Service Awards, numerous Performance Awards, and other accolades. Upon his retirement on September 29, he will have served over 13 years 7 months with the Agency. Combined with his military service, Mike has dedicated over 34 years in federal service to the United States. SDs, RFOs, fellow employees, and others throughout the Agency often sought his guidance, and all that know him respect him. He was truly an invaluable asset and his departure will have a lasting impact on the Agency. We wish him and his family the very best in his retirement.

On Wednesday, September 19th, Region II staff opted for a more thrilling picnic outing. Instead of grabbing the traditional basket and bench at the park, they grabbed their baseball caps and attended a game at the newly minted Suntrust Park, home of the Atlanta Braves. It was a good day for the Braves as they went on to beat the Saint Louis Cardinals in the 9th Inning 7-3.
